A word about the Home Photo Guide —

This book is for your personal use in looking for a home of your choice. It is compiled from the files of the Battle Creek Board of Realtors Photo List Exchange and is presented by members of the Board listed in the back of the book.

While this is not a complete showing of Board offerings, it is a representative sampling and should give you a good idea of what is on the market and in what price bracket you should expect to find your future home.

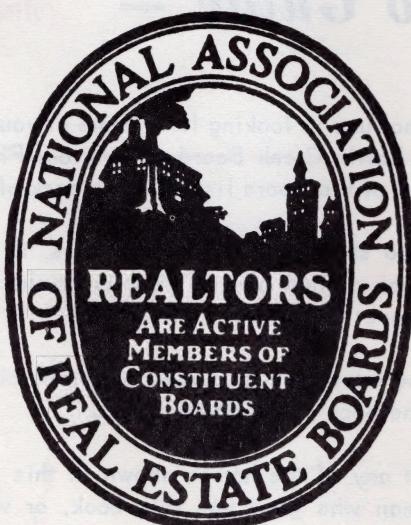

To those of you who may be interested in income or commercial properties, there are a few of these toward the back of the Photo Guide.

For more information about any of the homes shown in this Home Photo Guide, call the Realtor or Salesman who gave you this book, or whose name may be stamped at the bottom of this page. If the Photo Guide did not come to you from a Salesman, you may call the Realtor named under the listing, or any other Board member.

Showings of Board Listings are by appointment only, so call your Realtor if you want to look, or if you desire additional information about any of these, or other offerings.

We hope that this added service of members of the Battle Creek Board of Realtors will assist you in the selection of your future home.

BATTLE CREEK'S ON THE MOVE!

KELLOGG COMMUNITY COLLEGE CENTRAL CAMPUS

and you, MR. AND MRS. PROSPECTIVE HOME BUYERS . . . whether you're just now planning to make your home in "The best known city of its size in the world", or if you are just moving across town, let's pause a minute and take a look at the BATTLE CREEK AREA . . .

Every community across this nation is made up of stores and houses, schools and churches, and all other forms of brick and mortar all very much alike. The real differences are in the people; the way they live, and the cultural and recreational activities in which they participate. Few natives of the Battle Creek area ever want to leave — and most of those that do are anxious to return. Newcomers soon find their place in community affairs, become active in clubs and organizations, and make lasting friendships.

Be assured our schools are excellent, jobs are steady, our parks beautiful, and the 82 lakes in Calhoun County offer a profusion of outdoor sports in all seasons, qualifying us as an important area in Michigan's Water Wonderland.

At 172 West Van Buren Street (catty-corner from the Enquirer & News newspaper building) is located your Chamber of Commerce building. Here you will always find a friendly staff of dedicated and informed individuals ready to answer just about any question you might throw at them. Complete and detailed information on the Battle Creek area is available upon your request. Drop by for a visit or call WO 2-4076.

After you are settled in your new home, enjoy the community to its fullest; be a good citizen; vote; be a good homeowner — keep up your property, and in so doing you will find that you are living in a community full of good citizens who work for good government and who, like you, are proud of their homes and the community in which they live.
